BUSINESS PROGRAM

Lectures and master classes

A series of discussions aimed at providing professionals and aspiring professionals with the valuable knowledge, insights and skills needed to succeed in the interior design industry. Participants will learn to understand colors, choose materials, manage space and create stylish accents in their interiors under the supervision of experienced designers.

Buyer's sessions

Special sessions for potential distributors. Organizing meetings of exhibitors and guests interested in cooperation at the exhibition pavilion.

Consultation points

Guests will receive personal advice from experienced designers. They will help develop individual plans for the ideal interior, taking into account the preferences and budget of each client.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

MOSCOW
interior and design week

Possible formats of the educational program:

1

Consultations on the design and renovation of small spaces

An additional exhibition where designers will present ideas and solutions for optimal use of small spaces, making them functional, stylish and comfortable. When registering on the website, visitors will also be able to receive a guide from the event's Expert Council on how to make even a small studio practical and beautiful.

Tour of the exhibition from interior designers

By appointment, industry experts and interior decorators will give guests excursions along the "stylistic alleys", talk in detail about the features of design trends and give practical advice on how to make beautiful and inexpensive renovations.

Interactive show "Art in Design"

We show how fine art, such as painting, sculpture and photography, can become part of the interior. Together with artists, photographers, and decorators, we create original compositions for the interior of a house or apartment.

Mr. Omer Kerman

Dear Mr. Omer Kerman,

Let me express my sincere respect and inform you that Moscow Interior and Design Week is scheduled to be held in Moscow from May 6 to 9, 2024. The Organizer of the event is the Department of Entrepreneurship and Innovative Development of the city of Moscow.

It is expected that over 200,000 people will attend this prominent event. Additionally, more than 700 market professionals will participate in business discussions. The event will also receive extensive media coverage.

The event will take place at the VDNH EXPO, Pavilion No. 75, where Russian and foreign companies will showcase their brands to a wide audience in both B2B and B2C segments. The exhibition will cover an area of 24,000 m². Companies will showcase their products in various areas, ranging from furniture and interior solutions to construction and finishing materials.

The event will provide companies with the opportunity to demonstrate their potential, attract new buyers and customers, establish effective communication with the professional community, and engage with representatives from government agencies. The main purpose of the event is to introduce Russian consumers to new and interesting companies and demonstrate that high-quality and modern repairs are available to a wide range of consumers.

Dear Mr. Omer Kerman, we kindly invite you to participate in the organization of a national stand with an exposition of corresponding manufacturers from your country. The Organizing Committee provides ready-made stands and exhibition area free of charge to accommodate participants.

Please let us know if you are interested in this opportunity. We will be glad to see you at the event in person, where you can get the firsthand experience and foresee the prospects for your country's extended participation in the Moscow Interior and Design Week.
